

Ordinance on correctional facilities

Ordinance on the Standard of Basic Services Provided by Specialized Support Centres for Victims of Domestic Violence, Qualifications of Persons Employed at these Centres, Detailed Directions for Conducting Corrective and Educational Measures for Persons Exploiting Family Violence and Qualifications of Persons Performing Corrective and Educational Measures

It defines the way in which a specialist support centre for people experiencing domestic violence provides services in the areas of intervention, therapy and support and living. In addition, it defines the level of training of the people working in this type of centre: psychologist, educationalist, social worker, lawyer and therapist, as well as doctors, nurses and paramedics. It also defines the type and degree of corrective and therapeutic impact by specifying the level of training of those involved in this activity.
